

FMTA Executive Board Minutes March 18. 2020

Call to order 9:45 Am. Present are Carrie Christensen, Diane Wieland, Robin Braun, April Larsen, Lorian Bartle. (By Phone Evelyn Billburg, Davina Perret and Elinore Quander). Laura Trefethen and Laurie Brown arrive after meeting starts.

- I. Treasurer's report budget attached - Proposed Budget for Next Year – only changes Achievement Day raised to $1500, Hospitality raised to $100. Flowers for Judy Bonnell – waiting till we have more information.
- II. Meeting Locations for next year - April 2020 Meeting by Zoom and Possibly May 2020 by Zoom as well. We are leaning toward Our Savior of Hope in the fall ($75 per meeting) until Lakewood School of Music moves to 730 Simms (February 2021 is target date)
- III. Scholarship Fundraiser- Barnes and Noble has revolving management –It's disorganized and we're feeling a bit unsupported - leaning towards Our Savior of Hope
- IV. Dates for events Next Year
 - August 19 First Meeting
 - August 29 Farmers Market Festival
 - November 7 Achievement Day
 - December 5 and 12 Holiday Concert (Our Savior of Hope?)
 - January 30 Winterfest (Jazz Combo?) not discussed
 - March 6 Sonatina Festival
- V. Website Changes for Summer – July 1 is deadline for chair input- Lorian working on revamping Student Events to make it more easily accessible i.e.: Registration link under Events and online registrations for all festivals
- VI. Sonatina Festival - Need Assistant Chair, online registration and raise fee $1.00 to cover PayPal fee. Registration should increase as a result of better advertisement and repertoire list submitted by July 1 of 2020.
- VII. Ideas for Programs 2020-2021 – Teaching online was an obvious topic, possibly Shana Kirk as presenter.
